You must provide one of the following documents that indicate the student’s high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2014-2015.

Check the box that applies:

☐ A copy of the student’s high school diploma is attached.

☐ A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded is attached.

☐ A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript is attached.

☐ For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the “secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document is attached.

☐ An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.

☐ If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.

☐ If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or it recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents that successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
