

Customized Training

Vernon College can bring resources together to maximize your employees' performance. Utilize the skills and abilities of your employees through continuous learning that works! Education and training programs offered through Vernon College are job-specific, flexible and adaptive to the needs of individual employers. Customized training can be delivered at the college, your business or an off-site location. Customized training programs can continually upgrade the skills of your workforce and keep pace with the ever-changing technologies. These are non-credit, instructor-led courses. All continuing education and customized training courses are registered through Continuing Education resulting in a permanent Continuing Education transcript. We can tailor your learning experiences at a fraction of the cost of sending employees to training out of town.

Types of courses that can be offered:

- Leadership
- Team Building
- Time Management
- Communication – Oral/Written
- Computer Training
- Problem-Solving/Conflict Resolution
- Diversity in the Workplace
