Emergency Response Training

Emergency Response training is conducted to prepare employees and first responders for emergency situations. Such training is key to maximizing response efforts as well as the recovery from any incident including man-made or natural disasters, and other public emergencies. This page features scheduled emergency response training courses for Vernon College Employees and First Responders.

Course	Presenter(s)	Date	Status
IS-100.c. Introduction to the Incident Command System – This course is designed to introduce the Incident Command System (ICS) , and explains functional roles of incident staff during emergencies or disasters.	FEMA ON-DEMAND course choice for Vernon College Staff for the month of July	ON-DEMAND July 2024	OPEN
IS-100.c. Introduction to the Incident Command System – This course is designed to introduce the Incident Command System (ICS) , and explains functional roles of incident staff during emergencies or disasters.	FEMA ON-DEMAND course choice for Vernon College Staff for the month of June	ON-DEMAND June 2024	PAST
IS-100.c. Introduction to the Incident Command System – This course is designed to introduce the Incident Command System (ICS) , and explains functional roles of incident staff during emergencies or disasters.	FEMA ON-DEMAND course choice for Vernon College Staff for the month of May	ON-DEMAND May 2024	PAST
IS-100.c. Introduction to the Incident Command System – This course is designed to introduce the Incident Command System (ICS) , and explains functional roles of incident staff during emergencies or disasters.	FEMA ON-DEMAND course choice for Vernon College Staff for the month of April	ON-DEMAND April 2024	PAST
IS-100.c. Introduction to the Incident Command System – This course is designed to introduce the Incident Command System (ICS) , and explains functional roles of incident staff during emergencies or disasters.	FEMA ON-DEMAND course choice for Vernon College Staff for the month of March	ON-DEMAND March 2024	PAST
IS-100.c. Introduction to the Incident Command System – This course is designed to introduce the Incident Command System (ICS) , and explains functional roles of incident staff during emergencies or disasters.	FEMA ON-DEMAND course choice for Vernon College Staff for the month of February	ON-DEMAND Feb. 2024	PAST
Critical Incident Stress Management – This course is designed for anyone who desires to increase their knowledge of individual and group crisis intervention techniques.	P. Tabor ECN	04-26-2023 Thru 04-28-2023	PAST
Bomb Threat Response Training- In this timely session, we will develop an awareness of the serious nature of bomb threats; an understanding of preplanning considerations, and understanding of actions to take during and after receipt of a threat, and an understanding of various responsibilities relative to bomb threats according to the Vernon College Emergency Operations Plan	K.C. Boatman Vernon College	01-09-2023	PAST
Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events- In this timely session, we will explore methods of preparation and gain the skills needed to help prevent, recognize and increase your power to survive and active shooter incident. We will discuss how to make educated life-saving decisions regarding which actions to take during an active shooter/treat incident using the C.R.A.S.E concept.	Mike Hopper Vernon College	01-09-2023	PAST
Active Shooter Response- In this timely session, we will explore methods and gain the skills needed to help prevent, recognize and increase your power to survive and active shooter incident. We will discuss how to make educated life-saving decisions regarding which actions to take during an active shooter incident.	Mike Hopper Kevin Holland Vernon College	08-15-2022	PAST