Highlights of data:

On the 25th of August 2015 at 6 pm Vernon College conducted a scheduled Mandatory Housing Meeting. Out of the 147 dorm students, 140 attended. The 7 that did not attend were excused because of class, personal or family emergencies, and work. In this meeting:

- Introductions of Housing staff and general announcements were given by the Director of Housing.
- Dr. Dusty Johnston, President greeted and spoke to the dorm students
- Chris Bell, Vernon College Police Chief spoke about safety and security
- Dean Hardin, Dean of Student Services went over housing rules and regulations as laid out by the Student Resident handbook
- Sjhonton Fanner, Director of Student Activities spoke about upcoming events, SGA, and campus connect.

Use of data:

This meeting verified that every student living in campus housing received a housing handbook. All students are aware of rules and requirements as well as being aware of resources available to students.

How associated to Student Success?

For many Vernon College Housing residents this is the first time that they have lived independently. This orientation helps them begin to feel like a community and also clearly outlines their rights and responsibilities. This can help students be more engaged and successfully complete their coursework.
