Introduction

Welcome

Welcome to online learning at Vernon College! We are excited that you are interested in our college.

Distance Education (DE) provides learners with a convenient and flexible opportunity to go to college in a non-traditional environment. To meet the changing educational needs of its service area, Vernon College provides distance education (DE) opportunities to students with special scheduling needs, at remote locations, and at high schools and other regional centers. Distance education courses are available through the internet (in both online and hybrid formats) and by two-way interactive video (ITV) classrooms at area high schools and other selected sites.

Our ultimate goal is student success! Vernon College recognizes distance learners, like all students, need access to a host of services. Distance Education provides many of these services; from student services to technical support to online tutoring services.

Thank you for your interest in Vernon College Distance Education Courses.

Mission Statement

The distance education program at Vernon College provides access to college courses and support services for students who are separated by time and physical location from faculty members, support personnel, and/or instructional locations. Courses taught via distance education are the same as traditional face-to-face courses offered on site in terms of academic quality, learning outcomes, credit hours, and transferability.

Distance Education Overview

Definitions

Online Instead of attending traditional face-to-face classes on site, student's access course content, through the internet. While course content may be obtained online, proctored testing may be required for online courses. Some courses require students to purchase and install software on their computers.

Hybrid courses contain both a traditional face-to-face and an online component. These courses require students to attend scheduled class sessions at the appropriate instructional location. While much of the course content is presented online, proctored testing may be required for hybrid courses. Some courses require students to purchase and install software on their computers.

Interactive video (ITV) instruction provides two-way, real-time communication between instructor and students who are separated by geographical distance. VC's interactive television classrooms send and receive instruction from the Vernon Campus and Century City Center as well as provide connection to select area independent school districts.

Virtual College of Texas (VCT)

VC partners with other Texas community colleges as a host college for the Virtual College of Texas (VCT). Only current Vernon College students who have completed six (6) semester hours of college-level courses in residency are eligible to enroll in VCT courses through Vernon College. VCT courses may be made available to students in subject areas where VC does not normally offer courses within a given calendar year. VCT course may also be made available to students when the course is not available due to scheduling or the course has "closed" due to enrollment limits and when the student needs a course in the VC inventory in order to graduate prior to the next scheduled offering of the course. In all cases, VCT courses will only be made available through Vernon College if VC is not offering the course that semester or if the course is offered but all sections of the course are closed (including Internet, face-to-face, and ITV). Exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Dean of Instructional Services.

Credit Hour. In accord with federal regulations, a credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates:

1. Not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours out of class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester hour, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time, or
2. At least an equivalent amount of work as required outlined in item 1 above for other academic activities as established by the institution including laboratory work, internships, practical, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.

Distance Education Readiness

Online learning requires motivation, self-discipline, computer proficiency, and strong study habits as well as effective time management skills. Strong study habits are important because success in online courses requires self-directed learning and extensive time commitment toward the online course. In traditional face-to-face courses, students are expected to spend a minimum of 2 or more hours per week outside of class for each hour in class. Online courses require an even greater time commitment due to the absence of the traditional face-to-face classroom component. Online students should expect to spend a minimum of 3 hours per week for each semester credit hour of online courses in which they are enrolled (i.e. 9 hours per week minimum for a 3 SCH online course).

SmarterMeasure (SM) is a self-assessment tool which helps students determine their level of readiness for succeeding in online courses. Students are asked questions regarding their computer proficiency, motivation, organization, self-directedness, and learning styles. Students are even able to measure their on-screen reading speed and comprehension.

Prior to enrolling in an online or hybrid course, students are strongly encouraged to utilize the SmarterMeasure self-assessment tool. SmarterMeasure may be accessed at <http://vernon.smartermeasure.com/>

Use the first time user log in tab: USERNAME: vernon PASSWORD: student.

Student Orientation

A Student Orientation will be provided to you by your instructor(s). Basic log in and navigation information can be located in the Distance Education Student Orientation Guide.

Computer Requirements for Distance Education Courses

Vernon College uses Blackboard Learn 9.1 learning management system (LMS). A high speed internet connection is suggested for best results with the applications available within the LMS. To determine whether or not your computer system is sufficient for the distance education course OR to locate free software downloads, visit the Vernon College Distance Education web page.

Policies and Procedures

Academic Integrity

Vernon College is a comprehensive community college that promotes a culture of success for all who are a part of the institution. It is in this learning environment that the ethical growth and development of students can best be facilitated. The success of their experiences at Vernon College is contingent on the existence of an environment that requires adherence to a set of values that includes but is not limited to honesty, fairness, excellence, freedom, responsibility, achievement, civility, and community. Therefore, behaviors that contradict these ideals are unacceptable and will promote values that are in opposition to our mission and vision for the future. Academic integrity is the foundation of the respect and worth of our instructional efforts including the degrees and certificates we award. Academic Integrity Policy

Student Responsibilities. Students have a responsibility to behave in accordance with ethical standards that will build and sustain the trust of the faculty, the administration, and their peers and to follow the Honor Code of Conduct of Vernon College:

By virtue of being a student of Vernon College, I pledge to behave ethically by

- 1. following the standards of academic honesty and scholastic expectations;*
- 2. refraining from giving or receiving any unauthorized aid or engaging in collusion;*
- 3. refusing to take the work of others and submit it as my own;*
- 4. notifying the appropriate instructor and/or those in immediate authority of any incidents of suspected academic misconduct.*

Student Code of Conduct. Students enrolled in distance education courses with Vernon College are expected to abide by the Vernon College Code of Student Conduct, outlined in the Vernon College General Catalog (pg. 46) and Student Handbook (pgs. 36-38). When interacting with the instructor and fellow classmates, students are expected to follow all guidelines outlined in the Code of Student Conduct. Students who violate these policies and guidelines will be subject to disciplinary action.

Specific Violations of Academic Integrity. Violations of academic integrity are serious academic violations and will not be tolerated. Violations of academic integrity and forms of scholastic dishonesty include but are not limited to the following:

Plagiarism, collusion, cheating and other acts designed to give an unfair academic advantage to the student.

“Plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means someone else’s work and then submitting that work for credit as if it were one’s own. It also includes the failure to properly document sources used in research.

“Collusion” includes, but it is not limited to, unauthorized collaboration with another person in the preparation of an academic assignment offered for credit.

“Cheating” includes, but is not limited to:

1. copying from another student’s work, e.g., test paper or assignment, or allowing another student to copy from one’s own without authority;
2. possessing any materials during a test that are not authorized by the instructor, such as class note, specifically designed “crib notes,” calculators, electronic devices, etc.;
3. using, buying, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or in part the contents of an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer programs;
4. collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test or other assignment without authority;
5. discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination;
6. divulging the contents of an examination, for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another, when the instructor has designated that the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or kept by the student.
7. submitting for another person or permitting another person to substitute for oneself to take the course, to take a test, or to complete any course-related assignment;
8. registering for and taking a class for which the student does not have the formally required prerequisite classes or a written waiver from a Division Chair or Instructional Dean;
9. falsifying academic records, including, but not limited to, altering or assisting in the altering of any official record of the College.

Sanctions Related to Violations of Academic Integrity. The sanctions for academic dishonesty include but are not limited to:

1. a grade of zero on an exam or assignment;
2. an “F” in a course;
3. administrative withdrawal from a class with a possible recommendation of disciplinary sanctions.

Attendance

To promote student success and to maintain compliance with various state and federal regulations, Vernon College faculty and instructors maintain attendance records in all courses. Online courses are no different from traditional face-to-face courses in this regard; however, “attendance” must be defined in a different manner. Student "attendance" in online courses is defined as active participation in the course as described in each course syllabus/outline.

Online courses will, at a minimum, have weekly opportunities for student participation, which can be documented by any or all of the following methods: student tracking in Blackboard; submission/completion of assignments; and communication with the instructor. Students who do not log on to the course prior to the Official Census Date will be dropped from the course. The Official Census Dates are published in the Academic Calendar section of the Advising and Registration Guide. Students who fail to maintain active participation in an online course as defined in the course syllabus/outline will be processed in accordance with the College's current attendance policy.

Hybrid courses have classroom and online attendance requirements. Refer to the individual course syllabus/outline for more specific information about hybrid attendance requirements. The course syllabus/outline should include the dates that students are required to be on campus. Students enrolled in a hybrid course will typically meet with their instructor on the first day of the class.

Attendance Policy

Course Load

The normal course load during a sixteen (16) week semester or two (2) 8-week semesters within the 16-week semester is five courses of fifteen to seventeen hours. Physical education activity courses, labs, and other one-semester-hour courses are not included. The maximum load for a student is six regular courses or no more than 18 total hours in a Fall or Spring 16-week semester, and/or two (2) 8-week semesters, without the approval of the Dean of Instructional Services.

The maximum load for a student is restricted to two regular courses during each five and one-half week summer semester unless permission is granted by the Dean of Instructional Services for an additional enrollment. No more than fourteen total hours may be attempted in a summer semester of eleven (11) weeks or two (2) summer semesters of five and one-half weeks each.

Authenticating the Identity of Distance Education Students

All distance education students are authenticated through the use of a unique username and password. Students receive their unique username and password upon completion of the registration process.

Password Security:

The student is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the password and account. A student must not disclose his/her username and/or password to any other person. Disclosure of a username and/or password may result in administrative withdrawal from Vernon College with forfeiture of tuition and fees. Any student who is aware of a violation of username and/or password security must immediately notify either the instructor of the course or the Blackboard Administrator.

If you have any problems logging-in, please complete and submit the Help Form.

If students choose to transmit personal information such as credit card numbers or social security numbers while using Vernon College's telecommunications facilities, they do so at their own risk. Vernon College cannot be responsible for any problems that occur.

Student Complaints/Grievance Procedures

Vernon College recognizes that students have the right to file a complaint when they have a grievance against college policy or personnel. Vernon College defined "grievance" as a written student complaint submitted to the Dean of Student Services on the Vernon College Grievance Form. Vernon College has reasonable, just, and timely policies and procedures in place for the resolution of these written student complaints. All students are encouraged to resolve problems when they first arise with the parties involved. Only when problems can't be solved informally are they moved to the formal written grievance procedure. The grievance procedure is published in the Student Handbook (pgs.40-41).

Privacy of Students Enrolled in Distance Education Courses

The privacy of Vernon College distance education students enrolled in distance education courses is protected in the same manner as those enrolled in traditionally delivered courses. A comprehensive system of storage has been developed which ensures that student records are accessed by authorized personnel only, and will be stored in a safe and secure manner. Instructional and course communications between instructors and students are primarily accomplished through Vernon College issued electronic mail accounts which require authorized credentials and password securities.

Online Netiquette

With the onset of the online education environment and online courses a new buzzword has evolved called, netiquette. Simply defined, it means etiquette on the Internet (or net). In an online course you will have your communication skills tested! You will be speaking through writing to fellow students and instructors, so it is imperative to communicate well and professionally. Mostly, when speaking in an online course or in any online environment for that matter, the same rules apply for etiquette as in real-time. The golden rule of netiquette in an online class or environment is: do not do or say online what you would not do or say offline. Let us look at five important netiquette rules in an online course or education environment:

1- Be friendly, positive and self-reflective. When people cannot see you, and also do not know you, feelings can be hurt if you are not careful in how you express yourself. The old saying, think before you speak is important here. Think before you write. One word of advice is to not respond when you feel angry. Wait. Write it down somewhere and come back to it. When you do, you may find that you no longer feel the same way as you did when you wrote it, because you have had time to reflect about the situation. Last, if you still feel the need to be heard, then edit before you post, and write it in terms that are easily embraced. This is also true when you feel a critique is necessary; say it in a positive tone. Reread what you have written to be sure it is positive.

2- Use proper language and titles. Do not use slang or even profane words in an online education environment, even if they are words you consider, "not so bad," as they will sound offensive to the reader. Do not refer to your professor as "Doc" or by his or her first name, unless it is acceptable with him or her to do so. Also, do not use caps lock when writing, it will insinuate yelling. That would hurt someone's feelings and possibly give an individual the wrong impression.

3- Use effective communication. This takes practice and thoughtful writing. Try to speak and write clearly at all times. Again, reread before you respond. Define and restate your words when necessary. Correct a misunderstanding right away. Chances are, if one person felt a certain way about what you said, then another may have as well. Likewise, be mindful of chosen words and joking. Let's say for example, I write, "get out!" This slang term can be interpreted in several ways, either positively or negatively.

4- Professionalism. Do not use characters like smiley faces, and instant message abbreviations. Save it for personal conversations or definitely ask for permission before using them. They may be interpreted as childish or too casual for the online education environment. Last, always say please and thank you.

5- Ask for clarification. If you are unsure of what was said, or the instructor's directive, or are trying to interpret a person's expressions, then ask again. Do not sit in silence either misunderstanding or feeling offended. Do not interrupt though; wait until there is a break in the conversation, or until the open interaction occurs. Your instructor will appreciate your responsiveness and maturity. A simple way to do this is to say (or write), "I did not understand..." always keeping the onus for the misunderstanding on yourself.

With these top five netiquette rules, you are on your way to online success!
