Professional Development

Solicit Spring Proposals - Exhibit B (Professional Development Proposal) was presented to the committee, the process was explained. Purpose of the document is to solicit faculty/staff involvement of presenting during new semester kick offs. The form would be emailed to all employees of the college by the end of November 2012 seeking proposals for the January 2013 semester kick-off.

Dr. Kirk suggested that an additional means to solicit could come from personal emails or personal phone calls.

Requests of the committee for topics for spring faculty development were:

- SIR II examples
- Addressing and dealing with behaviors in the classroom
- Course Schedule Advising (updates)
- Tour and more insight of Allied Health Programs at CCC
- FERPA laws
- Social Networking

PD Mission and Goals - Exhibit C

- Ideas (3 themes) were presented to the committee on policy ideas/guidelines. Committee was given a list and websites of PD policies from other schools to explore in order to generate a list. The list would begin the process of developing VC Professional Development Plan. Email list to Roxie Hill by December.
- 4 day class schedule beginning in Spring 2013 committee discussed the value and opportunities for more PD activities.
