Highlights of data:

No violent or person on person crime was reported at any VC campuses. The submission of this report helps complete Vernon College's Cleary Act requirements. All faculty, staff and students were notified via email of the report and where it can be found on the Vernon College website.

Use of data:

Vernon College uses this data as part of the completion of the federal requirements of the Cleary Act. It also helps to justify our current security and intervention measures within our campuses.

How associated to Student Success?

It is vital to provide students and employees a safe environment that will foster learning.
