Assessment Activity/Report Communication Form
2016-2017

Title: Graduate Survey Report

Date of completion: 02/09/2017

Highlights of data: Each year, the Office of Admissions and Records is responsible for surveying graduates from all degree programs offered at Vernon College. The survey results provide a comprehensive picture of the satisfaction Vernon College graduates have towards the available services offered at Vernon College as it relates to their career endeavors. 120 surveys were returned for the 2015-2016 Academic Year. Those responding to the survey indicated an overall very positive attitude towards the services available at Vernon College.

Use of data: The data will be provided to the Vernon College faculty and staff. It should be used to find areas of improvement in the policies, practices, and procedures at Vernon College.

How associated to Student Success? By improving the policies, practices, and procedures at Vernon College, students will be able to achieve their goals in a more efficient manner.
