

Vernon College
Assessment Activity/Report Communication Form
2017-2018

Title: Chap Express Report (Fall)

Date of completion: July 2018

Highlights of data:

An exit survey (assessing the program) was administered to students at the completion of Chap Express. A second survey (assessing utilization) was sent via email at the end of the semester to determine if students had used the resources and tools.

Target population included first semester students enrolled in developmental courses, student athletes, referrals from staff or faculty, or students who expressed anxiety about beginning college.

173 students attended Chap Express in Fall 2017 and Spring 2018 with 167 Exit Surveys collected and 26 End of Semester Surveys collected.

- Changed the target population to include all developmental students.
- Reformatted the presentation to interactive learning format from lecture style.
- 100% of students who completed the End of Semester Survey stated they would recommend Chap Express to another student who is new to Vernon College.

Satisfaction: I am satisfied with my Chap Express experience

- 77% Strongly Agree (20)
- 23% Agree (6)
- 0% Disagree (0)
- 0% Strongly Disagree (0)

Use of data:

An annual review of the Chap Express content, presentation, and target population is conducted. The qualitative information received from students is used to identify the most relevant information as well as important information that may be missing.

- Focus on shortening the program.
- Include maps of the specified locations, CCC and VER.
- Focus more time on Individual Degree Plans.

How associated to Student Success?

The program is designed to provide the opportunity for students requiring additional assistance to learn more about Vernon College programs and services. Chap Express is designed to guide students and equip them with the tools necessary to maximize their potential for success.
